Admissions Agreement

- The policies and procedures of Newport Christian School are provided in our Parent-Student Handbook. Parents and seventh through twelfth grade students are responsible for reading the handbook. All parents and students are expected to comply with all of the policies and procedures.
- Enrollment in Newport Christian School is a privilege, not a right. Parents must understand that continued enrollment and re-enrollment of their children is dependent on their support of the school, its staff, and its policies.
- I have read and understand the financial policies of Newport Christian School and agree to cooperate with them to the fullest extent. I understand that the policy of the school is to make no refunds on registration fees.
- I give permission for my child to participate in all school activities, including sports and school-sponsored trips away from the school premises. I absolve the school from liability to my child or me because of any injury to my child at school or during any school activity.
- Photographic and video images of your child will be taken at school and during school activities. These images will be displayed on venues such as the school yearbook (along with their name), school website, classrooms, promotional brochures, etc.
- A possibility exists that classes taught at Newport Christian School may not be transferable to other schools or accepted at some colleges or universities.

I have read, understand, and agree to comply with all terms stated on this admissions agreement form.
